

Reflection Questions

Which of the books was your favorite, and why?

Name two things you learned about tolerance and acceptance from the books we read and the poem you and your partner wrote.

Think of one thing you will do today that can help someone feel more accepted in our classroom or school.